Charming townhouse with pool in Maria de la Salut

This is a beautiful property situated in the small charming and tranquil village of Maria de la Salut, surrounded by a beautiful landscape with the Tramuntana mountains in the background. The property consists of two houses, one from the beginning of the 20th century and the other from 1990, built by current owners.

The older house has a total living area of about 155 m², including terraces and is divided into 2 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a living room, a dining room and a toilet. It was renovated in 2010 and they have tried to preserve as much as possible of the typical details from the 20th century. The newer house has a total living area of about 240 m² including terraces, divided into 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a kitchen and a living room. The house has been newly painted inside.

The green and lush garden of a total of about 300 m² has many fruit trees and a nice pool. There is also also a garage for each house.

This is a great purchase for anyone who wants to experience the picturesque village life of Mallorca, surrounded by mountains but at the same time close to the beach and the sea, such as the Alcudia Bay with its white-washed beaches, which are only a 15-minute drive away.

Additional information: Air conditioning, irrigation system, own well and fireplace.
