Renovation object for sale in sought after Es Jonquet

We have the opportunity to offer you a unique townhouse in the very sought after area Es Jonquet in Santa Catalina. Es Jonquet maintains its historic charm from when it used to be a fishing village. The market in Santa Catalina and all it has to offer is located very near.

The house, which offers a lot of charm with high ceilings and beautiful original mosaic tile floors, is one of very few properties in this historic part of Palma that is still untouched. Even better, it has a building license so you can design your mallorcan dream home without having to wait for the paperwork. The building is distributed over 2.5 floors and consist of 133 m2. There is a roof terrace of 15 m2 with amazing 360 degree views of the sea the cathedral and Santa Catalina. Do not miss out on viewing this property and maybe find your dream home.
