Charming apartment from the turn of the century in Santa Catalina

This is a very charming apartment in great condition located in sought after Santa Catalina. Despite the proximity to restaurants and bars, the street is very quiet. The property has the perfect location to live in the heart of Santa Catalina without being disturbed. Central Palma and the promenade can be reached within just a few minutes by foot.

The apartment is located on the first floor of a building with only two floors. The apartment dates back to 1890 and was completely renovated in 2010 and is bright with large doors with windows out to two beautiful French balconies. The living space of 70 m2 is divided into two bedrooms and a small extra room and two bathrooms. The living room is large and bright and has an open kitchen.
