Refurbished penthouse with sea views in San Agustín

This penthouse, situated in San Agustín, offers astonishing views overlooking the sea. The upper part of San Agustín is increasingly popular due to its tranquil residential atmosphere, proximity to the sea, charming restaurants, and cafes, as well as its convenient 10-minute drive to the heart of Palma.

This unique 140m² penthouse is currently undergoing refurbishment and features three spacious bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and two complete bathrooms. The open kitchen and living room area boast large windows that allow natural light to illuminate the space from all angles, while terrace doors lead out to two terraces offering breathtaking views of the sea, the small port of Calanova, and the surrounding green areas. There are 2 additional terraces each connected to a bedroom to enjoy the views from the moment you wake up. An elevator provides direct access to the community terrace and pool area for a refreshing dip. Additionally, the property includes two generous private storage spaces and a designated parking space.

Additional information: AC in all rooms, parking space, a communal pool, sea views, furnished.
