Bright newly renovated apartment in Santa Catalina

This recently completely renovated apartment is located in a quiet and charming part of Santa Catalina, yet only a few minutes' walk from the lively and popular Santa Catalina market.

The total living space amounts to 82 m², making this a spacious and comfortable apartment. The spacious living room with open-plan dining room and kitchen covers a full 52 m². This large and airy space is perfect for both relaxing and socialising. From the living room you also have access to a cosy balcony, where you can enjoy your morning coffee or a relaxing evening. The apartment offers two generous double bedrooms, both designed for maximum comfort. There are two modern bathrooms, one of which is en-suite, providing extra convenience and luxury. In addition, there is a handy walk-in closet which offers plenty of storage space and helps to keep the apartment organised and clutter-free. The property has stylish tiled floors, which is both practical and aesthetically pleasing. Radiator heating and air conditioning with both hot and cold functions ensure that you always have a pleasant indoor environment, whatever the season. The energy-efficient double-glazed windows contribute to a quiet and well-insulated home. This apartment is truly a perfect year-round residence, combining modern comfort with a great location.
