Charming house in Secar de la Real

Just outside Palma, near the beautiful Serra de Tramuntana mountain range, lies this hidden gem. It is a charming house with a spacious garden, swimming pool and several terraces. With only 20 minutes drive to the airport and 10 minutes to Palma, this is the perfect location for those looking for a combination of big city and rural idyll. The house, which dates back to the late 19th century, has been tastefully renovated and now offers a modern yet charming and functional style.

The property has a living space of 254 sqm spread over two floors. On the ground floor you will find the bright lounge, a spacious bathroom, a beautiful hallway, a study and a rural and lovely veranda. Upstairs you will find an airy open-plan kitchen with a combined dining area, as well as a further full bathroom. From the kitchen you have access to two lovely terraces with beautiful views of the green garden. Upstairs there are also two bedrooms, one with a fitted wardrobe and one with a walk-in closet. The house also has a separate bedroom with an ensuite bathroom, which can be converted into a studio.

This property is perfect for social events and family life, with its landscaped garden with fruit trees and an inviting 34 sqm swimming pool. The house also has a huge garage space of 418 m2.

Additional information: Air conditioning, garage, swimming pool, barbecue area, laundry room, 3252 m² plot.
