Townhouse with beautiful garden in Marratxí

A short drive north of Palma takes us to the province of Marratxí. An area with spectacular views, looking to the west on a clear day, you see the plains of central Majorca towards the Sierra Tramuntana mountain ranges that dominate the western coast of the island. This beautiful townhouse is located in Marratxí's quiet and historic quarter, Es Pont d'Inca.

The house, which is spread over two floors, is conveniently distributed with living room, dining room and kitchen as well as a downstairs toilet. From the kitchen you reach the private terrace and the garden with the Mallorcan charm. It is welcoming with its local flora, a large banana plant and a built-in barbecue in true Mallorcan spirit. From the garden is the gate leading to the parking lot. On the upper floor of the house we find the three bedrooms and two bathrooms.

The house is in an authentic Mallorcan quarter so during a walk around Es Pont d'Inca you will likely see a large number of pepper pods drying outside the houses. These are used to produce the spice known as "Peore Board", an important ingredient of the traditional Sobrassada sausage. This is the house for you who want to live a quiet country life and still have Palma just around the corner!

Additional information: Air conditioning, double-glazing windows, parking and the furniture are included in the price.
