Spacious villa with stunning views in Génova

This beautiful Mediterranean style villa with large open spaces for socializing with family and friends was completed in 2009. The roomy garage with space for up to four cars is accessed from the street via automatic doors. There are two entrances to the house, either the stairs from the garage or directly from the street.

Ground floor: has a spacious kitchen from which you have access to the terrace and the pool. Next to the kitchen is the large dining/living room with a fireplace, sea views and doors onto the terraces. Adjoining to the living / dining room is a guest bathroom with shower and toilet. The ground floor also has a bedroom with en-suite bathroom.

First floor: four bedrooms all with parquet floors and fitted wardrobes. Three of the bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms and two have access to the private terraces. The master bedroom has in addition to the en-suite bathroom two walk-in closets. This is a very well-constructed house where each room has both air conditioning and oil-heated radiators. The entire ground floor has marble floors and most of the garden is paved and hence easily maintained.

Further information: Sea view, pool, parking, double glazing, air conditioning and oil-heated radiators.
