Beautifully refurbished townhouse with pool in Montuiri

This charming townhouse sits on the outskirts of the village of Montuiri, overlooking the beautiful countryside landscape. The village is increasingly popular due to its historic buildings, rural surroundings for hikers and bikers, good infrastructure including supermarkets, cafés, and restaurants, and its easy access to Palma (only 30 minutes away).

The house, dating back to 1900, was recently renovated with careful preservation of its old characteristics such as stone walls, while incorporating modern comforts like open spaces and wooden floors. Upon entering, you step into the cozy living room, which seamlessly connects to the light-filled dining room and open kitchen. Arched doors in the dining room lead out to the spacious terrace and pool area. On the ground floor, there is also a large bedroom (used as an office) with a stylish en-suite bathroom. On the second floor we find two spacious bedrooms, a bathroom, and a large terrace with countryside views. Additionally, there is a garage connected to the house with space for a car and storage.

Additional information: fireplace, pre-installation for AC, private garage, pool.
