Authentic Majorcan finca with wonderful views of the Sierra Tramuntana

This is a beautiful authentic Majorcan rural finca with a large patio and olive plantations in the heart of the Tramuntana mountains, close to the village Esporles, just a 20 minutes' drive from Palma.

Mallorcaresidencia collaborates with experts in wine- and oliveoil production, and we promote several fincas for sale throughout the island, with production and bodegas in different points of evolution. If your dream is to undertake a project of organic farming, wine- and / or oil production, here you will find the answer, with a complete pre-and after-sales service. We are very happy to present this new collaboration, since it is a unique project with unique mansions and farms on the island. This is a possibility to start up a personal project with help of professionals.
